Southern Ambassador wins Miss Georgia Southern competition

"It truly feels like a dream... I'll have two undergraduate degrees in 5.5 years so it's safe to say I love Georgia Southern. It's surreal that I'll represent my favorite place on Earth during [my] last year."

Registration opens for the Southern Pride Marching Band

The Southern Pride Marching Band is currently open for registration for the 2020 season.

The program, which has more than 200 members and multiple divisions, is now looking for fresh faces to add to its family in the winds, drum line, color guard and majorette divisions.

GS celebrates beginning of Black History Month with African American Journey to 2020 event

GS celebrated the beginning of Black History Month with the event African American Journey to 2020. The event had an unexpected twist: a gameshow.

Dr. Kendra R. Parker, assistant professor of African American literature, Ph.D, hosted the first event of many at GS during Black History Month.
